This is a letter of recommendation for Home Appeal Remodeling. My name is Allison Orman and my husband and I recently had an interior painting project completed by Aaron Lamoureux of Home Appeal Remodeling. Aaron came highly recommended by our realtor for doing exceptional work in previous jobs. And she was exactly right.

Aaron started off our project by arranging a one on one meeting to provide us an estimate. From that point on, we were impressed by the way he ran his business. Prior to contacting Aaron received several estimates from people trying to sell us interior painting projects based on ridiculously overpriced or lengthy estimates. Aaron was definitely different. He began by taking the time to get to know us and what we wanted completed in our home. His estimate was reasonably priced and considerate of our busy schedules and timeline. He took the time to go through item by item what would be included in the job and also how he was going to prepare prior to beginning the entire project. My husband and I were so impressed by his thoroughness, attention to detail, utmost professionalism, respect for our home, and cleanliness on the job. Aaron is very trustworthy and made us feel comfortable to allow him to be alone at our home. We are extremely happy with the finished product!

Aaron was very good at keeping everything neat and clean, providing us with feedback every night. Even our walls were left looking better than when he got here and he even cleaned my ceiling lights before painting!!! Additionally he was a huge help in providing direction with the right colors and making sure that everything was done right.

We would recommend Aaron Lamoureux of Home Appeal Remodeling for your interior painting needs. We are already contacting Aaron for new projects!
